Tutoring Experience

For over 14 years, I've had the privilege of tutoring students from diverse backgrounds, helping them succeed in IB, A-Level, and IGCSE Biology. I specialize in preparing students for their exams, coursework, and extended essays, focusing on building a strong understanding of biological concepts and research techniques.

During my teaching career, I've guided numerous students through the complexities of IB internal assessments and extended essays. I've worked closely with them on biology topics, ensuring they develop the analytical skills needed to excel. I also assist with coursework, providing targeted feedback to help students refine their work and achieve their academic goals.
