Tutoring Experience

I have spent over a decade working with students from diverse educational backgrounds, specialising in IB Business Management and A-Level Business Studies. My role as an IB Examiner has given me a comprehensive understanding of the exam requirements, enabling my students to approach exams confidently and effectively.

In addition to IB, I also tutor GCSE and IGCSE Business Studies, with a focus on accounting principles and business analysis. Through one-on-one and group sessions, I've guided students to excel academically and gain the analytical skills needed for success in business management studies.
